THE FRIEND.

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME LVIII.

149998

PHILADELPHIA:
PRINTED BY WILLIAM H. PILE.
1885.

XUM

XUM

q
Per q 7911
v. 58-59

INDEX.

Abyssinia. Notice of wholesale baptizing in, 30.
Abstinence. On the safety and duty of total, from intoxicating liquors, 91.
Activity in the church. Remarks on true and counterfeit, 411.
Address to some of my young friends, 44.
Afflictions. On the blessings of, in developing character, 164.
Africa. Observations of a traveller on the desert of, 61.
An adventure with lions in, 114.
Recent explorations in Eastern, 283. 291. 300. 308. 316. 325.
The cultivated plants of, largely introduced from America, 350.
African woman. Religious consolations and faith of a poor, 99.
Agents of "The Friend." List of, 37. 47. 224. 384.
Agriculture. Natural hot springs used to ripen early vegetables, 103.
Dynamite used in loosening land, &c., for, 103.
Testimony of a farmer to the value of the co-operation of his boys, 109.
Remarks of John Churchman on the advantages of, to the religiously disposed, 284.
Air. On the application of the power of compressed, 374.
Alaska. Notice of the luxuriance of vegetation in, 14.
Narrative of a recent visit to, 394. 402. 410.
Alexandria-Troas. Description of the ruins of, 212.
Alexander Samuel, of Leominster, England. Brief account of the late, 21.
Allinson Samuel. Notice of the efforts of, in founding the New Jersey Reform School, 205.
Algin. Observations on, 166.
All about a bird. Incident of a man of business entitled, 171.
Almsgiving. On the duty of, with suitable discrimination, 183.
Amos William. Brief account of, 305.
Anecdote of the late Grand Duchess of Hesse, 13; of Dr. Arnold, 133; of one of the Moorish kings of Spain, 194; Frederick II. of Prussia, 195; of a colporteur, 195; of Cecil, 195; Joseph Hemphill, 195; John Wesley, 195; Samuel Emlen, 332; Daniel Webster, 341.
Antigua. Account of a recent visit to, 282.
Anxiety for the future. Advice against undue, 110.
Apostolical succession. The episcopal theory of, an unscriptural delusion, 124.
Arabs. On the significance of bread and salt among the, 173.
Arabic language. Notice of the translation of "The Story of the Gospel" into, as a school book, 127.
Arab fable. An, 220.
Arctic Explorers. Account of the rescue of the "Greely," 2.
Mental stimulus increasing the physical endurance of, 198.
Arctic cold. Remarks on the effects of, on the human system, 150.
Art. On the demoralizing effects of modern, 126.
Asbestos used in print mills, 326.
Astronomical notes, 181. 182. 229.
Assyria. Notice of ancient records in the language of, in the British museum, 133.
Atheistical folly, 247.
Atlantic City. Notice of the continuation of Friends' meeting at, during the winter, 231.
Avoid aiming too low, 180.
Australia. Account of a drought in, 134.
Subterranean reservoirs of water believed to exist in, 310.

Ball. Solemn protest of Episcopal bishop Baldwin against the charity, 191.
Bank notes. A microscopic flora existing upon, 390.
Banks John. Epistle of, to Friends against worldly conformity, 84.
Remarks on the noble character of, as an advocate of the Truth, 111.
Baptists. Meetings for worship by, in England, formerly held without singing, 151.
Barclay's Apology. Notice of a proposed re-issue of, in Great Britain, 415.
Basaltic columns in Orange Mountains, N. J. Account of a recent visit to the, 177.
Baby. Adventure of a, with a monkey, 174.
Experience of a mother in teaching a, to mind, 253.
Baptism of the Spirit. On the, 250.
Barbadoes. Account of a recent visit to, 298.
Barnard Hannah. Brief notice of, 185.
Battey Amos. Biographical notes and anecdotes of, 259.
Be courteous at home, 45.
Be thorough. Extract entitled, 341.
Benevolence. Incidents of and reflections upon, 226.
Benton Thomas H. Tribute of, to his mother, 82.
Bible Association of Friends in America. Circular of the, 85.
Notice of the proceedings of, 254.
Society. Notice of the proceedings of the British and Foreign, 238. 359.
Biographical notes and anecdotes of Elijah Hoag, 221; Gerathmer Bowers, 222; Thomas Taber, 259; Amos Battey, 259; Huldah Hoag, 269; William Parmerlee, 269; David E. Knowles, 315; Mary Varney, 332; Charles Taber, 339; Clarke Stevens, 348; Persis Hoag, 374; Joseph Hoag, 388; Valentine Meader, 406.
Bird charmers. Notice of, 375.
Birds. Method of protecting grapes from, 29.
Blow-gun. Notice of the, used by Indians on the Upper Amazon, 118.
Book notices, &c. Biographical sketch of John G. Whittier, by F. H. Underwood, 20.
Essay on the grounds of the testimony of Friends against removing the hat and using complimentary forms of speech as tokens of respect, 38.
"The Primitive Friend," 38.
"Text and verse for every day in the year," 63.
"The Theatre," by Josiah W. Leeds, 63.
"Westtown," a poem by Joseph Kite, (Reprint), 69.
"Dewdrops," by Deborah S. Pennell, 151.
"Teacher and Teaching," by H. Clay Trumbull, 167.
"Vick's Floral Guide," 167.
"Babyhood," a monthly magazine, 215.
"Glimpses by sea and land," by M. L. Evans (new edition), 215.
Map of Lower Egypt, &c., 215.
"Concerning Printed Poison," by Josiah W. Leeds, 255.
"Illiteracy in the South," by Y. Warner, 255.
The Student, 263.
"The Interchange," 319.
Report of the Tract Association of Friends, 319.
"A Reasonable Faith, by three Friends," 327. 335. 354.
Review of the course of London and Dublin Yearly Meetings, by Geo. A. Milne, 343.
Notice of Report of Friends' Temperance Association, 350.
The Revised Version of the Old Testament, 351.
Report of Friends' Freedmen Association, 359.
Books. On the, which ought not to be read, 174.
On the selection of, for reading, 237.
On the need of better text, in teaching Latin and Greek, 399.
Boston common. Notice of the enforcement of a law against preaching on the, 358.
Botanizing at Atsion, N. J., 395.
Boy. How a small, got his rights in New York, 238.
Boys. A lesson for, on honesty, 35.
Remarks on the success of, in business, 316.
Botanical notes, 90.
Bowers Gerathmer. Anecdote of, 222.
Bread. Notice of people who do not eat, 53.
Brevity. On the value of, 190.
Bridges. On the breaking of, by vibrations, 38.
British America. Effects of the long continuance of frost in, 318.
Bryn Mawr college. Notice of, 295.
Brewster Ann. Testimony of, to the light of Christ in the soul, 371.
Business. The choice of a, not to be made with reference to money getting alone, 36.
Our Saviour's voice to be heeded in all the avenues of, 109.
Incident illustrating perseverance in finding, 171.
On the necessity of thoroughness in, 341.
On the testimony of Friends to simplicity and moderation in, 402.
By what sense does a vulture discern its prey? 226.
Byrd William. Brief account of the life and religious character of, 371.

Caln Quarterly Meeting. Account of a visit to, 26.
Camm Thomas. Faithfulness of, in religious service, 91.
Canada. Notice of the union of religious professors in, 63.
Candy. Notice of poisonous colored, 174.
Capital Punishment. Memorial of Friends for the abolition of, 191.
Caspian sea. Notice of the increasing commercial importance of the, 390.
Chalkley Thomas. Account of the life and character of, chiefly taken from his journal, 133. 141. 188. 197.
Occasional notes from the journal of, 235. 285.
Remarks on the voyages and character of, 268.
Character not dependent upon our surroundings, 81.
Warnings upon judging of, 101.
Charity. On the necessity of being just before being generous in, 12.
Personal experience in reference to, and comments, 228.
Charity ball. Solemn protest of Episcopal bishop Baldwin against the, 191.
Children. Disobedience of, to parents often the beginnings of a life of crime, 87.
The evidences that the, are walking in the fear of the Lord cheering to their older friends, 95.
Illustrations of the need of parental watchfulness over, 125.
should be taught self-reliance and perseverance, 131.
On cherishing a kindly intercourse between parents and, entitled "A contrast for fathers," 164.
Enduring prosperity of, cannot be founded on cunning and dishonesty, 173.
On the importance of avoiding deception with, 179.
On the importance of teaching, obedience, 253.
Excellent habits of a farmer in training his, 258.
Advice of Richard Shackleton on the training of, 275.
Observations on mental fatigue in, 326.
A deep religious exercise necessary for the right training of, 358.
Take care of the, 372.
Chili. Religious liberty decreed in, 246.
Chilili. The emperor of, a petty tyrant of the desert, 19.
Chimneys. Proposed improvement in, 326.
China. Observations of some Russian travellers in, 147. 154. 162.
The conduct of so-called Christians an obstacle to the spread of Christianity in, 230.
Chinese. Report of a commission encouraging the immigration of, to British Columbia, 286
Chinese. Notice of the liberality of a, 54.
Chinese in America. Advice of the Chinese minister, to, 13.
Chinese tea party in Philada. Notice of, 295.
Cholera. Remarks on the scourging of France by the, 30.
Superstitious trust of Italian peasants in reference to the, 95.
Conclusions arrived at in reference to the, 134.
Church. On the baneful effects of mere human wisdom in the, 1.
The spiritual life of a, diminishes as its pomp and show increase, 134.
Nearly everything in the true, has its counterpart in the false, 205.
Extracts from a history of the early, 347. 353. 364. 379.

149998

XUM

"Church" lotteries, exhibitions, &c. A bishop's determined protest against, 6.
Church fellowship. The doctrine of the early Christians respecting, 379.
Christ. On the doctrine of Friends in regard to the universality of the light of, 117.
On the doctrine of Friends in regard to the outward and inward operations of, 151.
Testimony of George Fox in reference to the light of, 172, 331.
The Spirit of God alone draws men to, 180.
No man can receive, while rejecting his cross, 193.
Testimony of John Crook to the love and tender mercy of, 206.
On the blessedness of living in obedience to, inwardly revealed, 282.
The religion of, the infallible cure for all moral evils, 295.
The light and life of, in the soul the fundamental doctrine of Friends, 331. 389.
The principles taught by, the basis of all reforms, 381.
On testifying for, in our daily walk and business, 326.
Christ's interference with material interests. Extract entitled, 109.
Christian believer. Both faith and works are necessary in the every day life of the, 373.
Christian perfection. On, 157.
Christians. Account of the primitive, 347.
"Christmas" feasting. Notice of deaths from, 254.
Churchman John. Remarks of, on degeneracy among Friends, 284.
Cicada. Observations on the seventeen year, in Pennsylvania, 403.
Cigarettes. Opium found in many, 46.
Citizens Representative Committee of Philada. Notice of the formation of the, 310.
Citric acid said to be a powerful disinfectant, 134.
Classical texts books in reference to morality. Observations on, 399.
Climate. Effect of, upon man, 319.
Cling the closer. Remarks on greater love to God entitled, 140.
Coal-mine explosions. The danger of, much increased by coal-dust, 206.
Cod fish. Statistics respecting the catch of, 350.
Cocoa-nut. On the uses of the, 35.
Collins Comfort. Brief notice of, 193.
Collins Micajah. Memoirs of, [continued from vol. lvii. p. 410], 1. 9. 17. 25. 33. 41. 49. 57. 65. 73. 81. 89. 97. 105. 113. 121. 129. 137. 145. 153. 161. 169. 177. 185. 193. 201. 209. 217. 225. 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273. 281. 289. 297. 305. 313. 321. 329. 337. 345. 353. 361. 369. 377. 385. 393. 401. 409.
Reminiscences of, 334.
Colored persons. A transportation company fined for discriminating against the civil rights of, 239. 415.
Notice of an effort to establish an Industrial school for, in Philada., 263.
Notice of religious meetings by Friends among, in Virginia, in 1807, 379.
Color of flowers. On artificially changing the, 22.
Come Home. Incident illustrating parental tenderness entitled, 54.
Compass. Notice of an improved form of the mariner's, 70.
Cornell University. Notice of a change in, from an anti-religious attitude, 246.
Conflicts. The greatest, are those in which we endeavor to subdue ourselves, 44.
Consolidation of the Friends' Intelligencer and the Friend's Journal (Hicksite papers), noticed, 303.
Conversation. Good and kind words dropped in, may be like seeds, 303.
Courts of law. On the non-exclusion of witnesses in, for unbelief 135.
Cremation as witnessed in Milan, Italy. Account of, 166.
Crocodiles guarding treasure in Annam, 103.
Crown of Lombardy. Historical notice of the iron, 37.
Crisp Stephen. Account by, of the institution of meetings for worship among Friends, 135.
Cruise among the Windward Islands. A, 267. 274. 282. 290. 298. 306. 311. 314. 322. 330. 337.
Comments on the above, 348.
Cuba. Religious toleration now proclaimed in, 151.
Culture. Remarks on the idolatry of, 6.
Aid not to be derived from, in the conversion of the heart, 327.
Danger. Observations on calmness in, shown by Americans, 52.
Danger of dosing. Illustration of the, 334.
Day in a canoe. A, 293.
Dead. On memorials of the, which are precious, 269.
Deaths.—Marshall Atmore, 224; Gertrude Allen, 232; Phineas Ash, 248; William Brown, 32; Jane Brown, 32; Samuel Bell, 56; James Bromley, 64; John Brantingham, 64; Thomas Bundy, 112; Eliza Baker, 144; Sarah Baily, 192; Mary A. Buzby, 200; Rebecca K. Ballinger, 224; Wilmon Bacon, 264; Sarah S. Bundy, 280; Martha Bell, 288; Lydia H. Bailey, 320; Rebecca W. Burr, 360; Henry Crew, 16; Mary G. Cook, 120; John Collins, 128; Abigail Chapin, 168; Priscilla R. Cooper, 192; Jane Clark, 376; Jeremiah Coppock, 376; Maria P. Carey, 392; Hannah Darlington, 160; Winslow Davis, 240; Sarah Eastlack, 160; Amy Eldridge, 256; Sarah Elfreth, 344; Jonathan Fawcett, 56; Rachel H. Forsythe, 160; William J. Fisher, 264; Ethan Foster, 360; Ruth Fisher, 392; Beulah Garrigues, 24; Ann Garwood, 160; Mary O. Heacock, 8; William Hutton, 72; Mary S. Hacker, 88; William R. Hancock, 128; Joseph Heacock, 160; Rebecca D. Holloway, 176; Stephen W. Harris, 208; Sarah W. Haines, 248; Mark Haines, 248; William Hall, 336; Jesse Hodgin, 344; Elizabeth D. Ivins, 48; Peter Ellis Ivins, 296; Richard Jacobs, 376; Mary M. Johnson, 392; Annie King, 16; Bartram Kaighn, 248; Chalkley H. Kirk, 272; Mary Anna Longstreth, 56; James S. Lippincott, 280; Thomas T. Marriott, 8; Sarah Mason, 16; Jane Moon, 64; Mary R. Maule, 152; Mary Ann Cope Morris, 160; Sarah Mainard, 216; Lydia E. Mather, 272; Andrew Moore, 296; Abigail Matlack, 376; John McCarty, 384; Ann Neill, 200; Samuel Nicholson, 232; David Newlin, 240; Temple Newlin, 288; Mary A. Outland, 256; Elizabeth Penrose, 16; Allen R. Pharo, 40; Abby Paige, 112; Elma Parry, 160; Mary L. Penrose, 160; William N. Powell, 192; Mary Patterson, 232; Elizabeth Pennell, 256. 264; Edwin Roberts, 56; Emmor Reeve, 248; Rachel B. Roberts, 288; Amos Roberts, 288; Mary Reeder, 376; Elizabeth Stabler, 8; Edward L. Scull, 8; Tabitha J. Stokes, 56; William E. Stanton, 64; Lydia W. Sheppard, 72; Elizabeth Smith, 128; Pamela Stanley, 176; Mary D. Stanton, 176; Charles Steer, 216; Eli Stanton, 296; David Scull, 304; Cynthia Stetson, 336; Hannah J. Stanton, 368; Sarah M. Starbuck, 392; Aaron Stratton, 392; Mary Ann Tucker, 8; Rebecca Way Townsend, 128; James Taylor, 248; Thomas E. Van Law, 40; Martha D. Van Law, 344; Levi Varney, 392; Mary Ann Whiteley, 136; Benjamin Way, 160; Hannah A. Wright, 168; John D. Wright, 168; William Waring, Sr., 168; Yardley Warner, 192; Thomas Wilkins, 248; Susanna Wood, 248; Rebecca B. Wills, 256; Joseph T. Warren, 304; James Woody, 360; Benjamin Winder, 376.
Deafness. Notice of a machine to determine degrees of, 198.
Death. On making preparation for, 204.
Declaration of Independence. Notice of the original copy of the, 222.
Demerara. Notice of a recent visit to, 306. 314.
Demoralizing literature. Illustrations of the ruinous effects of, on boys, 119.
On the dangers of, in summer recreation to various classes, 407. effects of modern art. Notice of, 126. principles inculcated. Notice of, 150.
prohibited by the Legislature of North Carolina, 311.
pictures. Decision of a Judge in Brooklyn against, 350.
Notice of the success of personal efforts against, in Philada., 407.
Notice of an excellent law against, in Connecticut, and its effects, 382.
Deep sea soundings. Reflections upon deep spiritual experience entitled, 170.
Despondency. On the wrongfulness of indulgence in, 366.
Dewsbury William. Epistle of, to Friends, 106.
Remarks on the noble character of, as an advocate of the Truth, 111.
Die. The declaration of being ready to, not of itself a proof of a preparation for a happy immortality, 310.
Diphtheria. Sanitary precautions in, 190.
Statistics of deaths from, 375.
Disinfecting rags. Description of a method of, 278.
Disappointments and crosses useful to man, 109.
Diseases consequent upon animal or vegetable growths, 36.
Divine interposition. Incidents of, and reflections, 203.
Divine visitations. Incidents and reflections concerning, 170.
On the awfulness of resisting, 171.
preservations. Incidents of, and reflections upon, 178.
support. Incidents and reflections concerning, 219.
Divorce. Remarks of Gov. Pattison on the frequency of in Penna., and the need of additional legislation to restrain, 223.
Remarks of The Episcopal Recorder against, 327.
Dog. Sagacity of a, 78. 198. 277.
Doubt. Seasons of, by their humbling operation, at times helpful in our spiritual progress, 107.
Doubts may at times properly be concealed from the knowledge of others, 110.
Dreams inciting to religious faithfulness, 131.
Dress. On the testimony of Friends to plainness of, 198. 317.
Letter of Philip Price to his son on departing from plainness of, 307.
On putting stumbling blocks in the way of others, by costly decorations in, 309.
Advice of George Fox in reference to plainness of, 317.
Little regard paid by Hannah More to ornament in, 318.
Condemnation of costly and ornamental, by John Wesley, 373.
Remarks of Tertullian on adornment of, 380.
Drive to French creek. Essay entitled. A, 50. 58.
Duty. Against hastening to remove from our post of, 66.
Duty-doing not "doing good" the part of a true Christian, 261.

Eagle. Account of an attack by a, upon a stag, 389.
Earthquake. Remarks on the recent, observed in the E. part of the United States, 22.
Description of an, in the West Indies, 34.
Notice of a Japanese house invented to withstand, 46.
Observations on the recent, in New York city, 62.
On the effects of fright produced by an, 366.
Earthquakes. On the possible relation of hurricanes to, 277.
Belief of scientists that feeble, are constantly occurring, 382.
Editorial.—Notice of a practical illustration of the blessed effects of a religious concern on the part of caretakers of youth, 7; Notice of proceedings of New York Yearly Meeting, held at Glen Falls, and comments on an undue reliance on the Holy Scriptures, 14; Comments on the state of Society elicited by some observations of Micajah Collins, 14; Remarks on the recent earthquake, 22; Remarks upon the course of London Yearly Meeting in regard to unsound principles and practices, 30; Notice of the proceedings of Canada Yearly Meeting, 38; Remarks on the approaching Presidential election, and caution to our younger members in relation thereto, 39; Notice of the proceedings of North Carolina Yearly Meeting, 47; Notice of Agents appointed, 47. 224. 384; Remarks on the care necessary in the exercise of the ministry at funerals, 55; Notice of an appeal on behalf of the "Penna. Retreat for Blind Mutes and Aged and Infirm Blind Persons," 55; Notice of "Text and Verse for every day in the year," by G. W. Cartland, 63; Notice of "The Theatre," by Josiah W. Leeds, 63; Remarks on William Penn's "Sandy Foundation Shaken," 70; Notice of the proceedings of Western Yearly Meeting (smaller body), 71; Notice of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 79; Comments on a late instance of the infringement of religious liberty in regard to wearing the hat in court, 79; On the cheering evidences of the spread of sound views of religious truth among members of different denomination, 87; The Christian cheered from time to time by evidences that the Lord's work is going on in the earth, 95; On the unsoundness of a belief in an imputative righteousness, 103; Remarks on the confirming effect on our faith of the evidences left on record of the sustaining power of Divine Grace, 111; Notice of the proceedings of Kansas Yearly Meeting (smaller body), 119; Comments on refraining to publish the proceedings of some of the late Yearly Meetings, 119; Notice of Joseph Armfield's remarks on the impropriety of the acknowledgment of the Binns' Meeting, in Ohio, as a body of Friends by London Yearly Meeting, 119; Notice of a communication on the repudiation by the Binns' Select Yearly Meeting of Ohio, of the doctrine of the Light of Christ in the heart, 119; On the original objects for which meetings for discipline were established among Friends, and on judging of their spiritual life, 127; On the doctrine of the Society of Friends in regard to worship, 135; Comments on an article in "Friend's Review," on the present condition of the Society of Friends, 143. 159; On the necessity of obeying the Light of Christ in the soul to escape the contaminations of the world, 151; Notice of "Dew-drops," by Deborah S. Pennell, 151; Notice of A. Gordon's Essay on Modern Quakerism, 159; Notice of "Teachers and Teaching," by H. Clay Trumbull, and comments on the way in which only the Holy Scriptures can be made truly profitable to us, 167; Notice of Vicks' Floral Guide, 167; Reflections on engagements which may profitably occupy the mind on the commencement of a new year, 175; On the duty of almsgiving, and of exercising care in relieving objects of distress, 183; Notice of an impostor, 183; On the doctrines of Friends in reference to the Holy Scriptures, 191; Notice of suffering caused by the extreme cold in the North Western States, 199; On birthright membership in the Society of Friends, and the original character of meetings for discipline, 207; Remarks on a popular movement to open parts of the Indian Territory to settlement by whites, 215; Notice of "Babyhood," 215; Notice of "Glimpses by sea and land," (new edition), 215; Notice of a "Map of Lower Egypt," &c., 215; Correction of a quotation, 215; Remarks on favoring public measures intended to restrict or prevent intemperance, 223; Notice of an application of a Monthly Meeting of Friends in New York State to be joined to Canada Yearly Meeting, and comments on the division of the Society caused by unsound doctrines, 231; Remarks on proposed injustice towards Indian tribes, and the dangers of disregarding the immutable principles of right, 231; On the settlement of disputes, and the importance of a peaceable spirit, 239; On the views of Friends in regard to the Holy Scriptures, 247; Remarks on a contributed article, 247; Remarks on the necessity of uncompromising firmness in maintaining the doctrines of Friends, 255; Notice of "Concerning Printed Poison," by Josiah W. Leeds, 255; Notice of, "Illiteracy in the South," by Y. Warner, 255; On the marriage covenant, and the low tone of feeling in regard to it, in some places, 263; On the nature of the qualification received by the early Friends for religious labors, 271; Comments on declarations of President Cleveland respecting the treatment of the Indians and freedmen, 271; Comments on the conflict of purposes of the "Womens' Foreign Missionary Association" with the views and discipline of Friends, 278. 359; Notice of an earnest protest of "The Barber's National Journal" against pernicious literature, 279; Notice of a communication from Edmund S. Fowler, addressed to Friends proposing to change their residences, 279; Comments on a letter of Joel Bean in reference to the existence of two distinct societies among Friends, 286; On the blessedness of experiencing the presence and government of the Head of the Church in our religious assemblies, 295; Notice of the proceedings of Philada. Yearly Meeting, 303. 311; On the happy prospect of a peaceful settlement of the dispute between England and Russia, 319; Comments on a "Revival" meeting at Greenwich, Ohio, 319; Notice of the Report of the Tract Association of Friends, 319; Notice of and comments on "A Reasonable Faith, by three Friends," 327; Remarks on comments by The Christian Worker on the proceedings of Philada. Yearly Meeting, 335; Notice of a letter on "A Reasonable Faith," &c., 335; Notice of a pamphlet by Geo. A. Milne, of Dublin, reviewing the course of London and Dublin Yearly Meetings in relation to correspondence, &c., 343; Remarks on late religious labors within our limits, 343; Remarks on the Revised Version of the Old Testament, 351; Comments on the similarity of religious exercises in different periods in the church, as illustrated in an Epistle by London Yearly Meeting, in 1743, 367; Notice of the proceedings of London Yearly Meeting, 375; Notice of a request by the University of Pennsylvania for books and pamphlets, 376; Notice of proceedings of New York Yearly Meeting, 383; Remarks on the recent passage of the "Marriage License Act," 383; Comments on an article in The Interchange respecting pecuniary payment of ministers among Friends, 383; Comments on the practical effect of the modern innovations among, in the West, 390; Remarks on the illegal leasing of lands in the Indian Territory, 399; Remarks on one of the dangers of the increase of wealth among Friends, 399; Notice of the printed minutes of New England Yearly Meeting (larger body), and comments, 407; Comments on the dangers of "summer reading," 407; The true knowledge of God only to be had through the operation of the Spirit of Christ, 415.

Electricity. An unexpected shock from, experienced by an inmate of a house, 158.
Application of, to condensing fumes of lead, &c., 414.

Electric light preferable to others for light-houses. The, 398.

Election of President of the U. States. Counsel addressed to Friends, in relation to the, 39.
Remarks on insisting upon morality in the candidate for the, 87.

Encouragement to the poor in spirit, 372.

England. On the responsibility of, for the destruction of races of men by intemperance, &c., 14.
An ancient Roman pavement lately unearthed in, 190.
On awakening proper convictions in regard to war in, 270. 351.

England, Church of. Notice of open air preaching by a bishop of, 14.
Comments on the absence of efforts by the, against war, 118.
Notice of missionary efforts of, in London, 158.
The influence of, in England not exerted in opposing war, 278.
On the unreasonable assumptions of a bishop of the, 310.
The, arraigned for its silence in regard to the late war excitement, 351.
Comments on the reception of a costly pastoral staff by the primate of, 390.
Notice of efforts to form a "Church army," by members of the, 407.

English language. Illustration of the intricacies of the, 179.

Epi-copalians. An Iowa bishop among the, admitted to the masonic order, 231.
Censure by a bishop of, of "sacerdotal celibacy," 239.

Epistle of William Dewsbury to Friends, 106.

Evans Thomas. Remarks of, on the falling away of members from the principles of Friends, and a future gathering to the standard of ancient Quakerism, 260.

Evans William. Remarks on the dignified character of the late, 13.

Example. On the obligation to set a good, 53.
On the quiet effects of a good, 162.

Excursion to Egg Harbor city, N. J. Account of an, 66.

Explosion caused by igniting dust, 326.

Faith illustrated. A narrative of the deliverance of a ship, 27.
Experience and testimony of Elizabeth Webb that true, is the gift of God, 36.
On the doctrine of Friends in regard to, 103.
On the want of, in our every day lives as practical unbelief, 186.

Faithfulness. A word for increased, 86.

Family. Membership in social "clubs" destructive of the happiness of the, 269.

Farmer. Notice of the care of a, in training his children, 258.

Ferris David. Providential relief experienced by, 75.
Testimony of, to the work of Divine grace in his heart, 107.
Experience of, while under preparation for the ministry, 131.

Figures. Notice of the accurate printing of over six millions of, 246.

Filtering stone. Notice of artificial, 37.

Finish what you begin. Extract entitled, 286.

First day of the week. Observations on the observance of the, in different cities of Europe, 14.
Recommendations of the Massachusetts Railroad Commissioners against railroad work on the, 199.
The opening of a public museum in London on the, considered in the House of Lords, 303.
Notice of a movement to lessen the amount of labor in Germany on the, 414.

Fishing for menhaden on the shore of Long Island Sound, 95.

Flexible limestone. Notice of, an English, 326.

Flowers. On artificially changing the color of, 22.

Fog phenomenon at Mount Desert, Me., 77.

Food. On the value of cocoa-nuts as, 78.
The turtle as, 111.
A marsh fly used as, in Mexico, 222.

Forgiveness. Instance of Syrian, 101.

Forests. On preserving, from fire, 37.

Forrest Buildings in Philada. Notice of recent additions to the, 199.

Forster William. Anecdote of, 140.

Fothergill Samuel. Letter of, to Gilbert Thompson, and comments, 26.
Two dreams related by, showing the necessity of faithfulness, 131.
Poetical tribute to the memory of, 165.

Fox George. On the testimony of, respecting the light of Christ, 172.
Advice of, to Friends to keep their children to plainness of dress, 317.

Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 21. 53. 59. 83. 86. 118. 180. 186. 198. 211. 228. 250. 267. 268. 282. 291. 300. 309. 333. 357. 362. 371. 386. 411.
Notice of the sufferings of some of the early, 3. 10.
Remarks on the state of the Society of, 35. 38. 59. 78. 119. 143. 167. 211. 228. 231. 245. 250. 267. 268. 271. 286. 359.
The present defection among, consequent upon the preaching of unsound doctrines, 143.
Comments on an article by A. Gordon in reference to, 143. 159.
On the doctrines of, respecting the outward offering and inward appearance of Christ, 151.
The early, what they were and their distinguishing principles, 172.
On the objections of, to speculations upon religious subjects, 70.
On the doctrine of, in reference to faith, 103.
To take pay for preaching is contrary to the principles of, 189.
On the doctrines of, respecting the Holy Scriptures, 191. 247.
On the principles of, in regard to marriage, 253.
Remarks on the modern changes among, in England, 21. 245.
Notice of the faithful testimony of, in North Carolina against war in 1814, 137.
Notice of the hurtful effects of "revival meetings" among, 38. 319.
Observations made in Indiana on the effects of the modern changes among, 138.
On the testimony of, against hat honor, &c., 38. 155.
Address to some young, 44.
Comments on the above, 86.
The reproach brought upon, by modern innovators among, 227.
On the effects of First-day schools among, 60.
Remarks on the testimony of, against using flattering and complimentary titles, 67.
Remarks on the desolating effect of "revival meetings" among, 78. 119. 138. 390.
Epistle of John Banks to, to avoid the fashions, customs and spirit of the world, 84.
Remarks on the spread of the principles believed by, among other religious professors, 87.
The discipline of, to be administered under the guidance of the Spirit of Truth, 92.
Reasons why, decline saying grace at meals, &c., 98.
Tender advice and counsel of William Dewsbury to, upon the performance of their religious duties, 106.
Remarks on the noble constancy of the early, under persecution, 111.
Comments on the repudiation by the "Binns' meeting" of Ohio, of the doctrine of the light of Christ, as believed by, 117. 119.
Notice of the remarks of Joseph Armfield and others on the impropriety of acknowledging the Binns' meeting in Ohio, as of body of, by London Yearly Meeting, 119.
Notice of departures from the practices of, by members of the Binns' meeting, Ohio, 388.
Notice of a trust created by Joseph Greene of Rhode Island, for the benefit of, 123.
On the original objects for which meetings for discipline were established among, 127.
On judging of the spiritual life among, 127.
On the doctrine of, in regard to worship, 135.
On the testimonies of, in regard to plainness of dress, 317.
On the example of, in excluding novels from libraries, 145.
Notice of the progress of declension among, in England, 167.
Thoughts on plainness of dress among, 198.
The ground of the recent separations in the Society of, 199. 286.

Friends. Remarks of John Woolman on the trust committed to, in the maintenance of their principles, 205.
Remarks on the care necessary by, when travelling in the ministry, 207.
On birthright membership in the Society of, 207.
On the character of meetings for discipline of, as originally established, 207.
Statistics relating to the number of, in the United States, 213.
Notice of the effects of innovation upon the doctrines of, in New York State, 231.
Notice of the labors of William Savery in healing a schism amongst, in Pyrmont and Minden, 236. 405.
Comments on the above, 239.
Remarks on the state of Society of, in New England in 1820, 241.
A reminiscence of the past in the Society of, and of saintly members among, 245.
Notice of a protest against doctrines repugnant to those of, 255.
On the necessity of uncompromising firmness in maintaining the doctrines of, 255.
Exposition of the views of, in regard to war, by Joseph Hoag, 258.
Testimony of Thomas Evans respecting the Society of, 260.
On the views of, in regard to marriage, 253. 263.
Notice of disturbers of, in Lynn, Mass., in 1822, 265.
On the nature of the qualification received by the early, for religious labors, 271.
Advice of Richard Shackleton to, on the care of children, 275.
The religious concern for their families recommended by, illustrated in the case of Daniel Wheeler, 301.
On the primary cause of declension among, 310.
On primitive doctrine and ministry of, 331.
On the qualifications for conducting the meetings for discipline of, 340.
Remarks on some of the characteristics of, 343.
On the antagonism of the modern missionary movement among, to the principles and practices of, 278. 359. 383.
Testimonies of and concerning several, of modern times, 371.
Notice of ancient records of, in Virginia, 382.
Remarks on the abolition of slavery among, in America, 382.
The payment of ministers incompatible with the principles of, 383.
The testimony of, in Indiana against water baptism affirmed, 398.
The mission of, to uphold to the world the testimonies of the gospel, 399.
On maintaining the testimony of, to simplicity in business and in living, 402. 410.
The testimony of, against outward ceremonies affirmed by New England Yearly Meeting (larger body), 407.
Friendly caution in time of need. A, 267.
France. Notice of a revival of religion in, 230.
On the prevalence of universalism in, 390.
Franklin Matthew. Brief notice of the religious labors of, 9.
Fraudulent antiques. Notice of, 69.
French farms and farmers. Account of, 61.
Fruits of the Spirit. On the, 43.
Funerals. Remarks on the improper expectations of people in regard to ministry at, 9.
On improper eulogy at, 180.
A reform needed in the meaningless and expensive custom of wearing black at, 214.

Galls. On the production of oak, and other, 302.
Gambling on ocean steamers. Remarks on, 70.
Gambling at Monte Carlo. On the probable suppression of, 142.
by so-called "churches." On, 199.
Notice of the enforcement of the law against, on Coney Island, 286.
at "church fairs" declared an offence by Judge Stewart of Baltimore, 367.
Gas. Remarks on the use of natural, 22.
Geology of Chester Co., Penna. Observations on the, 50. 58. of North Eastern Penna. Observations on the, 74.
Germany. Notice of the neglect of religion in, 95.
On the moral condition of, 270.
Getting square. Extract entitled, 308.
Girls. Remarks to, on supporting themselves, 26.
Girls. Rich parents should have their, taught to labor, 139.
Glacier of the Svartisen in Norway. Notice of the, 310.
Gladstone. Remarks of, on the great specific for the evils of this life, 174.
"God knows." Extract entitled, 349.
Goodwin sands, Eng. Account of the dangerous, 21.
Grace of God. Essay entitled. The, 227.
A manifestation of the, given to all men, 257.
Grace at meals, &c. Reasons why Friends decline saying, 98.
Grenada. Account of a recent visit to the island of, 306.
Greene Joseph. Extract from the will of, conveying property to Friends on Conanicut island, 123.
Grellet Stephen. Solemn warning recorded by, 242.
Grinder William. Account of the convincement and character of the late, 163.
Guidance of the Holy Spirit. Incidents illustrating the, 140.
Guilty conscience. Confession of crime arising from a, 214.

Habits. On curious and useless, 319.
Harnold William. Faithfulness of, in religious service, 91.
Hallock Lydia. Account of, from a Testimony issued by Hector Monthly Meeting, 244. 251.
Harmony Community. On the probable speedy dissolution of the, 407.
Hat-honor. On recent efforts to maintain the testimony of Friends against, 38. 79. 155.
Haverford college. Notice of late report of, 191.
Notice of a recent legacy to, 375.
The use of tobacco at, disapproved, 390.
Harshness. Frankness and, in speech contrasted, 85.
Hand writing never twice alike, 270.
Health. On the growth of animal or vegetable germs as affecting, 36.
Notice of disease conveyed by flies, 38.
Observations on parasitic worms, 45.
Remarkable recovery of, after a bullet wound, 46.
On the necessity of using muscular exercise to obtain, 62. 387.
On the precautions necessary against parasitical diseases, 69.
On the destructive effects of alcohol upon, 78.
On the influence of the imagination upon the nervous system, 86.
Proprieties to be observed in visiting the sick, 100.
Dangers to, from carbonic oxide gas, 103.
Injurious effects of impure drinking water upon, 110.
of Cincinnati. Effect of the late Ohio river floods in improving the, 118.
Conclusions arrived at in reference to the cholera, 134.
On the treatment of persons recovering from starvation, 142.
On the advantage, particularly to the young, of retiring to bed, not later than ten o'clock, 149.
Marshes when covered with water not injurious to, 150.
Sanitary precautions in diphtheria, 190.
On the danger to the, from the use of impure ice, 214.
On the danger to, from damp dwelling sites, 222.
Notice of a remarkable surgical operation, 230.
On the poisonous effects of carbonic oxide, 254.
On dyspepsia, 261.
On the dangers of arsenical wall-paper to, 270.
On the causes and treatment of pneumonia, 277.
On deriving, from a summer excursion, 350.
Statistics respecting deaths from diphtheria, 375.
On the care of the, 380. 387.
On the injurious effects of tobacco upon the, 380.
On the dangerous effects of beer upon the, 380.
The dreadful effects of licentiousness upon the, 387.
Attention to the clothing necessary to maintain, 387.
On the impairment of the, by the injudicious use of medicine, 387.
Heathen. Fear and not love felt by the, towards their gods, 102.
Hearing. Prof. Bell's machine to test the power of, in different persons, 198.
Heaven. On avoiding gross and material conceptions in regard to, 180.
Helper of the helpless. Essay entitled, The, 309.
Heroes. Account of two, 274.
Hints relative to moderation in business, simplicity in living, and contentment with little things, 402. 410.
Hodson Robert. Extract from a letter of, written shortly before his death, 229.
Hoag Elijah. Biographical notes and anecdotes of, 221.
Brief notice of, 299.
Hoag Huldah. Biographical notice of, 269.
Hoag Persis. Biographical notice of, 374.
Hoag Joseph. Religious exercises of, in the Southern States in reference to slavery, 122.
An exposition of the views of Friends in regard to war, by, 258.
Experience of, on the benefit of faithfulness to the Lord's requirings, 334.
Anecdote of, 388
Holy Scriptures. Illustrations of passages of the, from oriental customs, &c., 9. 22. 51. 61. 68. 76. 101. 107. 117. 173. 210. 286. 326. 372. 406.
Remarks on an undue reliance on the, 14.
Notice of a copy of the, for sale at a penny in England, 127.
Notice of the confirmation of the, by ancient Assyrian records, 133.
Comments on the study of the, and the way in which only the spiritual truths contained in the, can be made profitable to us, 167.
On the doctrines of Friends in reference to the, 191. 247.
A translation of the New Testament in Hebrew, widely distributed among Jews, 207.
The, not to be rightly understood by the wisdom of this world, 211.
Notice of the pending revision of Luther's translation of the, 246.
not "the more sure word of prophecy" that Peter spoke of, 251.
The publication of the Revised New Testament unprofitable pecuniarily to many, 278.
The, distinguished from the Word of God, 386.
In reference to the Revised translation of the Old Testament, 295. 351.
Holland. Account of a religious visit of Thos. Chalkley to, in 1709, 235.
Holy Spirit. On the baptism of the, 250.
The, the great teacher of spiritual truths, 373.
Honorary degrees by colleges, &c., tend to minister to vanity, 399.
Horses. On wild, on the Pampas, 191.
Horsemanship of the Gauchos. On the, 102.
Hospital. Notice of the German, in Phila., 127.
Notice of a charitable fund, for the help of the sick after leaving the, in London, 183.
Humility. On the need of constant, 300.
Hunt William. Account of the death of, in England, in 1772, 155.
Poetical tribute to the memory of, 165.

Ice. Impurities dangerous to health may be contained in, 214.
Observations on the formation of, 220.
Icelanders. Notice of an organization of, in the United States, 343.
Ideas. On the importance of teaching correct, 76.
Inquisition. An apology for the, by a Roman Catholic, and comments, 223.
Indiana. Observations during a recent visit to, 130.
Incidents and reflections. Essays entitled, 74. 82. 90. 98. 107. 114. 122. 131. 140. 146. 154. 165. 170. 178. 187. 194. 203. 211. 219. 226. 235. 242.
India. The spirit of caste among the English an obstacle to the spread of Christianity in, 55.
Notice of insect and reptile life in, 69.
Notice of superstitious idolatry in, 70.
Account of ancient monuments of stone in, bearing inscriptions, 105.
Notice of a ceremony resembling that of the scapegoat in, 249.
Statistics of the number of Methodists in, 286.
Social habits in, yielding to the employment of women as physicians, 303.
Notice of irrigation in, on a gigantic scale, 414.
Indians. Notice of the leasing for oil purposes by the Corn Planter, 70.
Recommendations of the Commissioner of Indian affairs upon enforcing laws against selling liquor to, 166.
Recommendations of Governor Bushyhead on industrial pursuits at schools among the Cherokee, 179.
Account of a religious visit paid to, by Thos. Chalkley, 188.
Notice of peculiarities &c., of the Zuni, 214.
On a popular movement to open the Indian territory to white settlers, 215.
The Onondaga, in New York, abolishing their tribal government, 223.
Remarks of General Crook, on the policy of the Government towards the, 223.

Indians. Notice of a protest of the Crow, against a lease of their lands, 231.
Remarks on the legal title to the Oklahoma lands, belonging to the, 231.
Comments on proposed injustice towards the, 231.
Account of a recent visit to the Moqui, 243.
Notice of religious customs, &c., of the Moquis, 250.
Remarks of President Cleveland in reference to the, and comments, 271. of Indian Territory. Notice of a religious visit paid by David E. Knowles to, 315.
An industrial school for, established in the University of New Mexico, 367.
Notice of the labors of Friends among the, of the Allegheny Reservation, 377. 395.
Remarks on the advanced condition of the Cherokee, 383.
Notice of the Haida, 394.
Account of a recent visit to, of the Allegheny Reservation, New York, 385. 395.
Remarks on the illegal leasing of lands of the, in the Indian Territory, 399.
Notice of relics of, found in California, 406.
Account of the prosperity of a recent settlement of, in British Columbia, 410.
Insect powder. On the production of, in California, 29.
International conference at Rome in reference to commerce, marriage, &c. Notice of a proposed, 175.
Infidel settlement at New Ulm, Minn. Notice of changes effected in the, 175.
Impressions. On the danger of disregarding clear, even in the affairs of life, 5.
Imprisonment and release of Elizabeth Stirredge, 3. 10. 19.
Institute for colored youth. Notice of a proposed industrial school in connection with, 263.
Evidence of interest of colored people in the above, 294.
Intemperance. Notice of an evasion of law in Iowa, in the interests of, 14.
Remarks of Cardinal Manning on the promotion of, by England, 14.
A daughter's appeal against, effectual, 45.
Notice of a memorial against, by a Quarterly Meeting in England, 46.
Remarks on the destruction of domestic happiness by, entitled, The Portland Vase, 53.
Prosperous condition of towns in Colorado enforcing prohibtion, 63.
An irrepressible conflict must go on against, 68.
On the cost of licensing liquor selling as compared with prohibiting it, 70.
Account of proceedings of a Holiness Band against, in Carson, Nev., 77.
On the destructive efforts of alcohol upon life, 78.
A warning against, entitled, Lost in a Crevasse, 84.
Notice of the adoption of a prohibition amendment in Maine by both parties, 87.
On the safety and duty of total abstinence from intoxicating liquors, for our own sake, and that of others, 91.
Statistics of the consumption of beer in Milwaukee, and comments, 95.
On the consuming effects of alcohol on the system, 101.
Diminished revenue from, a financial benefit, 127.
The marriage of a drunkard forbidden in Waldeck, Germany, 127.
Insanity increasing with, 135.
Observations on the sorrowful effects of, in the court room, 148.
Sorrowful effects of wine at communion table in producing, 158.
Advices of the late Roman Catholic Council against, 166.
Notice of favorable change of sentiment in reference to, within 100 years, 191.
Notice of recent efforts to enforce prohibition in Kansas, 191.
A few kind words instrumental against, 196.
Testimony of Charles Lamb to the miseries of, 206.
Extract from the message of Governor Pattison, on the necessity of action by the Legislature of Penna. against, 223.
On favoring public measures to prevent, 223.
Notice of the formation of a National League in Boston against, 230.
Solemn warning against, 243.
A touching scene resulting from, 252.
Intemperance. Prohibitory liquor laws declared constitutional in the Supreme Court of the U. S., 254.
Local option adopted in Georgia by 90 counties, 262.
On the effects of beer in deadening the sensibilities, 271.
On the need of general convictions in the community against, 278.
Notice of a Memorial of Friends to the Legislature of Penn'a., against, 278.
Constitutionality of prohibitory laws affirmed by Supreme Court of Iowa, 295.
Notice of the large consumption of intoxicating drinks in the West Indies, 330.
Incident respecting, entitled, "Father had you not better take a sheep, too?" 356.
Notice of the prohibition of Whiskey in Bourbon County, Ky., 367.
The evils of, in St. Louis exceed those from all other social causes, 375.
The dangerous effects of beer in undermining the health, 380.
Remarks on the weak excuse for drinking spirituous liquors while travelling, 381.
A liquor-seller gives up his business, after a religious awakening in Atlanta, Ga., 390.
On the practical results of prohibition in Maine, 390.
Statistics showing the great increase of, in Europe, 415.
Institute of Philadelphia. Notice of Friends, 215.
Insects. On the parental instinct of, 262.
Ireland. Notice of the recent travels of a court valuer in, 42.
On the attitude of Roman Catholics in, to the papacy, 358.
Iridium. On a valuable alloy of, 261.
Iron. Notice of the loss of strength of, from continual vibrations, 222.
A durable cement for, 374.
Italy. Notice of crime in, 207.
Items, 6. 14. 22. 30. 38. 46. 54. 62. 70. 78. 87. 95. 118. 126. 134. 142. 150. 158. 166. 175. 182. 191. 199. 206. 214. 223. 230. 238. 246. 254. 262. 270. 278. 286. 294. 303. 310. 319. 326. 343. 350. 358. 367. 375. 382. 390. 398. 407. 414.

Jackson William. Religious character of, in old age, 389.
Japan. Observations on the future of religion in, 142.
On the method of extracting teeth in, 254.
On fire proof mud houses in, 318.
Japanese. Account of Joseph Hardy Neesima, a christian, 139.
Women. Notice of the zeal of, in rebuilding a temple, 319.
Jenkins Mehetable. Brief notice of, 193.
Jerusalem. Among the Eastern pilgrims at, 117.
Jews. Notice of Joseph Rabinovitch a reformer amongst the, in Russia, 46. 246.
The New Testament in Hebrew widely distributed among, 207.
Statements respecting the difference between "reform" and "orthodox," 223.
Remarks on the unsettlement among, in regard to their religious position, 262.
Beautiful tribute of, to Christianity, 286.
Notice of Rabbinical laws of the, 327.
Jordan Richard. Testimony of, to the truth as professed by Friends, 371.
Jottings. Essays entitled, 149. 155. 163. 180. 204.
Judge Hugh. Anecdote of, 140.
Judge and the poor African woman. Religious experience of a, 99.
Judging. Incident illustrating the necessity of caution in, 82.
Justice John. Remarkable convincement of, 146.
Justice and generosity, Remarks on, 12.
Justin Martyr. Account of the character and martyrdom of, 353.
Jupiter. Notice of some physical characteristics, &c., of the planet, 229. 342.

Kersey's Treatise on the Views of Friends. Notice of the republication of, 295.
Kingdom of God. Essay entitled. The, 357.
Knowing how to want and how to abound. Incidents and Reflections entitled, 74.
Knight Sarah. Brief notice of, 371.
Knowles David E. Biographical notice of, 315.
Knowledge. On the true source of Divine, 211.

Lake dwellings in Scotland. Notice of recent discoveries of, 253.
Land. Remarks on the labor of cleaning, from stumps, &c., 378.
Land slips on the Amazon. Notices of, 54.
Law written in our hearts. On the effects of, on our conduct, 313.
Last time. Warnings entitled. The, 75.
Late. Remarks on being always, 94.
Leather. On rendering, soft and pliable, 254. 413.
Leddra William. Expressions of, the day before his martyrdom, 219.
Letter of Robert Hodson. Extract from a, and comments, 229.
Rachel Price, 378. 405.
Philip Price, to his son Eli K. Price. Extract from, and comments, 307.
Eli K. Price, 307.
Robert Smith and comments, 132.
Richard Shackleton, 275. of an aged Friend in Chester County, Pa., 299.
Lewis Ellis. Account of the coming forth of, in the ministry about thirteen years of age, 275.
Life. On preserving the spiritual, 116.
On cheerfulness in our daily, 181.
On rightly reading the lessons of, 286.
Light. Experiments on the penetration of sea-water by, 407.
Light of Christ. On the great blessing of the, to souls of men, 124.
The, in the heart felt by Indians, 188.
Warning of William Penn, to those who reject the, in their consciences, 229.
Testimony of William Jackson to the, 389,
Light and guidance. Incidents and reflections upon, 140. 146.
Lions. An adventure with, in S. Africa, 114.
Lightning. Remarkable resuscitation of a man struck by, 313.
Notice of tubes formed by, in rocky countries, 381.
Library. Statistics of Friends' Free, at Germantown, 286.
Libraries. A few remarks upon public, and the exclusion of fiction from them, 145.
Life. Two chapters from real, on the transitory nature of its pleasures, 53.
Our daily, the strongest proof to others of our religious character, 156.
Lick observatory. On the preparation of the great telescope &c., for the, 174.
Literature. Incidents illustrating the effects of vile, on boys, 119. 125.
On the importance of restricting fictitious, in libraries, 145.
On the necessity of obeying the Light of Christ to escape the effects of evil, 151.
On the, which ought not to be read, 174. 237.
Notice of the seizure of immoral, in New York, 191.
On the exercise of a wise choice in the selection of, 237.
Notice of an earnest protest of the "Barbers' Journal" against, 279.
On the efforts used during the last 13 years to suppress immoral, 295.
Locusts in South America. Notice of, 37.
in Cyprus. Notice of the extermination of colonies of, 195.
Lofoden Islands. Brief account of the, 347.
Logwood cutting in Honduras. Notice of, 229.
London. Notice of Octavia Hill's method of house reform in, 149.
Notice of increased consumption of gas during a fog in, 246.
Lost in a crevasse, Extract entitled, 84.
Love. On the universality and free offering of Divine, 94.
Illustration of the, of God, as compared with the, of Christians, 261.
The possession of true, an evidence of partaking of the Divine nature, 286. 294. to God the incentive to obedience to Him, 326.
The blessings to mankind, resulting from the prevalence of Divine, 358.
"Love to the Lost," by James Naylor. Extract from, 195.

Madagascar. Notice of a proposed pamphlet respecting France, and, 167.
Account of a visit to Antananarivo market, in, 186.
Maelstrom. Brief account of the, 347.
Mahogany cutting in Honduras. Account of, 198.
Magna charta of England. Notice of the original, 222.
Marble. On removing stains from, 46.
Manuscripts in the East. Notice of a catalogue of, 382.

XUM

"Marl" pits of New Jersey. Remarks on the, 414.
Marriage festival. Description of the celestial city entitled, 406.
Marriage. Remarks on mistaken reasons prevalent in America for postponing, 257.
On the principles of Friends in regard to, 253. 263.
On happiness in, 276.
Remarks of Tertullian on the happiness of a rightly ordered, 379.
Marriages. Statistics in reference to late, 382.
Remarks on the passage of an act in Penna., respecting, 383.
Marriages.—Charles E. Cox to Lydia Shipley Bean, 16; Benjamin Vail to Anna G. McCollin, 104; Joseph H. Matlack to Elizabeth B. Haines, 112; John P. Sharpless to Hannah Maule, 120; William Jacobs to Rachel Ann Moore, 136; Morris Linton to Ruth A. Leeds, 136; William H. Walker to Anna Maria Wilson, 152; Edwin A. Hoopes to Susanna H. Walter, 160; Henry W. Comfort to Edith DeCou, 160; David H. Morlan to Eliza M. Ashton, 232; Richard Haworth to Julia A. Burgess, 232; David Scattergood to Hannah E. Pharo, 248; Isaac Roberts Comfort to Anna Adelaide Brinton, 248; Charles C. Haines to Lydia D. Jones, 256; James S. Jones to Ruth B. Leeds, 256; Ellis Haines to Catharine P. Howard, 264; James L. Peele to Margaret A. Futrell, 264; Edward Forsythe to Hannah J. Yerkes, 312; Joseph J. Coppock to Rebecca Ellyson, 344; Barton D. Coppock to Rachel Hodgin, 344; Jacob V. Edge to Sarah M. Bacon, 352; George W. Taylor to Elizabeth Burton, 352.
Marsh John Finch. Reminiscence of the character and ministry of, 245.
Masai land. Narrative of a recent expedition through, 283. 291. 300. 308. 316. 325.
Matches. The inventor of lucifer, 190.
Martinique. Account of a recent visit to, 290. 322.
Meader Valentine. Anecdote of, 406.
Mechanical knowledge. Practical skill in, 294.
Methodists. Notice of the union of different bodies of, in Canada, 63.
Remarks of, on a proposed missionary scheme in Central Africa, 262.
Statistics of, in India, 286.
Mexico. Notice of recent travels in, 189. 196. 202. 210. 218.
Miller Elizabeth of Salem, N. J. Brief notice of, 1.
Ministry. On the care necessary in the exercise of the, at funerals, 55.
Remarks on sound views in regard to the, by a prominent Baptist, in England, 97.
The unsatisfying character of that, which does not proceed from the source of all good, 99.
Testimony of a clergyman to the necessity of the unfoldings of the spirit of Truth in the, 107.
Caution in reference to haste in performing visits in the, 131.
Experience of David Ferris while under preparation for the, 131.
No, so sweet as that which arises from the pure life, 133.
Incidents of Divine guidance in the, of Friends 146.
Contrary to the principles of Friends to take pay for the exercise of the, 189.
On the care necessary when travelling in the, 207.
Solemn warning conveyed by a Friend in the, 242.
Remarks on the exercise of the, 244.
On the deceitful workings of a false, 257.
The difference between a man-made and true, 261. 267.
Account of the coming forth in the, of Ellis Lewis when about 13 years old, 275.
What is not true, 286.
The concern of Isaac Penington in relation to the, 310.
On the necessity of waiting for a renewed call in the work of the, 310. of Deborah Darby and Rebecca Young. Notice of the powerful. 346.
Observations of Rachel Price on the exercise of her gift in the, 357. 363.
Miracles of Lourdes. On the so-called, 399.
Mississippi. On the formation of the delta of the, 156.
Notice of the navigation of the, in 1802, 238.
Missionaries. Notice of the number of, in Africa, 303.
Missionary work. Remarks on, 323.
Mohammedan sects. Notice of the enmity between, 345.
Moravian Missionaries near Thibet. Notice of the self-denying labors of, 165.
Mother. A tribute to a, 156.
Mother's influence. Illustrations of a, 82.
Moon. Impressive observation of the velocity of the shadow of the, 182.
Monotony. The feeling of, largely dependent upon individual character, 220.
Montefiore Moses. Notice of an act of business integrity by, 183.
Montserrat. Notice of a brief visit to, 322.
Mormonism in the Southern United States. Notice of, 239.
Notice of the conversion from, of a former missionary of, 246.
Observations of Joseph Cook on, 270.
Notice of, in the Sandwich Islands, &c., 319.
Mount Desert Island. A day in a canoe off, 293.
Music in connection with religion. Remarks on, 35.
Action of Presbyterians in opposing the introduction of instrumental, 175.
Remark on, in the meetings of so called Friends, 299.
Mysteries. Remarks on prying into heavenly, 157.

Names. On the importance of designating wrong actions by their right, 94.
National gods. Extract entitled, 406.
Natural Bridge of Virginia. Account of the, 98.
Naylor James. Expression of, shortly before his decease, 52.
Natural History, &c.—Snow birds, 6; The condor, 6; Holothurians, 13; North Cape whale, 13; An intelligent donkey, 13; Intelligence of the oriole, 13; The prairie dog, 13; A pet pigeon, 14; Gratitude and generosity in the lower animals, 29. 198; A lead-boring insect, 46; Cat-birds and the black snake, 62; High altitudes limiting animal life, 62; Curious cocoon, 62; Sagacity of a dog, 78. 198; A tame toucan, 78; A tame canary, 82; Affection between a cat and a bird, 82; The cassowary fishing, 86; Jelly fish, 95; Diatoms, 95; Subterranean fish, 102; A tree frog, 110; Communication of ideas from man to the lower animals, 111; The parrot, 111; The turtle as food, 111; Land birds and insects at sea, 118; Deep sea fishes, 118; The Parauacu monkey, 126; On the marvels of the natural world, 126; The sea urchin, 126; The human eye, 126; The Biscacha, 134; Fish on land, 134; Condors, 142; The fauna of the deep sea off the west coast of Africa, 142; Fishing with cormorants, 154; Habits of the Heer-wurm, 166; Anecdote of a fox, 174; Anecdote of a monkey, 174; The teredo, 182; The sugar tree borer, 198; The minute fauna of Fairmount reservoir, Phila., 206; Curious ants' nest, 214; The California quail, 219; The turkey buzzard, 226; Electrical eels, 230; Bird companies in Brazil, 246; Confidence in man shown by a lark, 246; On rabbit tracks, 246; The teeth of a trout drawn by the keeper of an aquarium, 246; Parental instinct of insects, 262; Lichens, 266; Modification of instinct, 270. Dogs trained as newsboys, 277; The meadow mouse, 278; The African buffalo, 301; The gall-fly, 302; The South American ostrich, 302; The albatross, 318; A tamed red squirrel, 318; The porpoise, 326; The Buffalo-gnat, 326; The Anaconda, 326; Toucans, 335; Sea Gulls used as diet for cattle, 342; Alligator, 342; Sea turtles, 358; Monumental nests of birds, 366; The effects of humble bees on the propagation of red clover in New Zealand, 382; Humble bees on the Pampas, 398; The baboon, 398; Protective resemblances in insects, 390; The seventeen year cicada, 403; The red winged blackbird, 406; Mimicry in marine shell fish, 406; The golden crowned thrush, 413; The cat-bird, 413; The thirteen year cicada, 414.
Neale Samuel, Experience and exercises of, in regard to the ministry, 99.
Nero. Notice of the recent discovery of a garden laid out by, 46.
Neesima Joseph Hardy, a christian Japanese scholar and teacher. Account of, 139.
New England farm life. Account of, 318.
Newfoundland. Notice of sectional animosity in, 270.
New Jersey. The shallowness of the sea near the shore of, 326.
New Orleans. Sewers, &c., in, on the top of the ground, 197.
Side glances in, 354.
Newlin Sarah. Brief notice of a religious engagement and death of, 370.
Nevis. Notice of a brief visit to, 322.
New Year. On engagements which may profitably occupy the mind on the commencement of the, 175.
Nitro-glycerine. On the vitality of, 382.
Norway. Notice of recent religious movements in, 151.
Leaves used as fodder in, 294.
Women as agricultural laborers in, 294.
Nursing. Advice given on, by the late Grand Duchess of Hesse, 13.

Oatmeal porridge improved by keeping, 62.
Occasional reflections. Essays entitled, 21.
Occasional thoughts—hidden exercised ones, 50.
"Oil spot" in the Gulf of Mexico. Notice of the, 175.
Oils. Notice of a process for separating, by centrifugal machines, 254.
Oklahoma lands. Account of the history, &c., of the, 231.
Opium. Cigarettes in this country found to contain, 46.
On breaking up the habit of using, 335.
Opportune words and deeds. Extract entitled, 60.
Orange groves of Los Angeles, Cal. Notice of, 174.
Orange Mountain, N. J. Account of basaltic columns found in the, 177.
Oysters. Notice of the destruction in Connecticut of, by starfishes, 310.

Palmer Asa. Biographical notice of, 269, 298.
Paraffine. On the value and use of, in the arts, 222.
Parents reconciled over the corpse of a son, 94.
Epistle of William Dewsbury on the religious duty of, 106.
Advice to, patiently to answer the questions of their children, 116.
On the results to children of the neglect of, 150.
On the happy effects of religious concern of, exemplified in the case of Daniel Wheeler, 301.
Patagonia. Account of the motion of the soil in, 87.
Paper. On poisonous wall, 270.
Patents. Statistics in reference to American, 103.
Parmerlee William. Biographical notice of, 269.
Correction in reference to the above, 298.
Peat and peat bogs. On, 382.
Penington Isaac. The concern of, relating to the ministry, 310.
The esteem of, for the Holy Scriptures, 316.
Sanctification defined by, 370.
Penn William. Advice of, to the unconverted, being the preface to "No Cross, No Crown," 59.
On "The Sandy Foundation Shaken," by, 70.
Account by, of the character of the early Friends, 173.
Warning of, to those who despise the light of Christ in their consciences, 229.
Advice of, to Friends in his day, 374.
Pennsylvania. Notice of hardships endured by the early settlers in, 315. 323.
Observations by Rachel Price on travelling in, by public conveyance in 1836, 397.
Petrified wood used for mantels, &c., in California, 37.
Petroleum stream in the Andes. Notice of a, 150.
well. An intermittent, in Penna., 150.
wells on the Caspian. Notice of, 382.
Philadelphia. Notice of a circular letter addressed to the magistrates of, 22.
Society for organizing charity. Notice of the proceedings of, 262.
Pigeon. Touching affection of a pet, 14.
Pilot-town at the mouth of the Mississippi. Account of, 156.
Plainness of dress. On the testimony of Friends to, 198.
Letter of Philip Price to his son Eli on departing from, 307.
Remarks of Rachel Price in reference to her experience in, 338.
Plants.—Large grape vine, 29; The Persian insect powder plant, 29; Giant cacti, 37; Notice of lichens, 54; The artillery fern, 70; A large orchis, 78; Rapid growth of the Eucalyptus in South America, 87; Anacharis canadensis, 103; Curious moss in Patagonia, 126; Fruit of a cactus produced without flowers, 158; The Sisal hemp, 196. 206; The cohune-palm of Honduras, 206; The magney, 214; The compass plant, 214; Prickly bambu of Honduras, 222; On the important office of the leaves of plants, 234; Tanekaba bark of New Zealand, 254; The sensitive plant, 270; Giant puff ball, 270; Lichens, 266. 283; The Skunk cabbage, 299; Arums, 299; The shad blossom, 300; Notice of the number of species of trees in the United States, 335; The Madagascar lattice plant, &c., 390; Heavy woods, 390; The Virginia Creeper, 413; The poison vine, 413.
Plants. Notice of, found in Berks Co., Pa., 4. 10. 18.
Notice of, found near Moorestown, New Jersey, 43.
Notices of, found in Chester Co., Pa., 26.
Protection of, against frost, 46.
Notice of, found near Egg Harbor City, New Jersey, 66.
Remarks on the study of, 90.

Plants. On the localities and migrations of, 134.
Remarks on, noticed during a winter walk, 194. 234. 242. 283.
developing from leaves, 270.
Remarks on, seen in a walk in spring, 324.
Sand dunes due to, 335.
On the ability of, to exude moisture, 342.
On the succession of trees, in forming forests, 342.
Notice of, observed during a ride in Ohio, 355.
Notice of, observed in Western New York, 362.
Notice of, found at Atsion, N. J., 395.
Pleiades. Late interesting researches on the, 362.
Polycarp. Account of the martyrdom of, 364.
Pompeii revisited, 261.
Pray without ceasing. On the meaning of the injunction, 187.
Prayer. The need of constant, to maintain the spiritual life, 116.
The highest kind of, is waiting upon God for his Divine presence and help, 187.
Answers to, 187.
True, must always be made in the Holy Spirit, 309.
The doctrine of the early christians respecting, 379.
Prayers and praying in the East. On, 68. 76.
Prayer cylinders of the Thibetans. Notice of, 190.
Profanity rebuked, 188. 194.
Prophecy. The gift of, not withdrawn from the church at the present time, 140.
Price Rachel. Some recollections of, 315. 323. 332. 338. 346. 357. 363. 370. 378. 388. 397. 405.
Price Eli K. Testimony of, against the doctrine of materialism, 316.
Prairie dog. Notice of the destruction of pasture by the, 13.
Prison. Disobedience to parents often leads to, 87.
Presbyterians. Notice of the union of different bodies of, in Canada, 63.
Remarks on a revolution in the doctrinal views of, 87.
Action of, in opposing the introduction of instrumental music, 175.
Notice of a pastoral of, against dancing, 246.
Providential relief in times of distress, 75. 93. 114. 187. 226. 235.
deliverance from lions in S. Africa, 114. guidance in the affairs of men. On the blessedness of recognizing, 165.
deliverances, 170. 178. 197. 203. 235. 236.
Pygmies of Africa. Description of, 22.
Poetry.—Original.—The forgotten resting place, 36; To the memory of our beloved friend, L. W. S., 77; To John G. Whittier, 172; Lines on the death of Lydia W. Sheppard, 181; My schoolmates, 212; Paul at Athens, 221; The new year, 228; "For whosoever will save his life," &c., 276; The brink of the river, 285; The mountain stone, 300; Psalm xlii. 333; Mountain pink, 333; Tribute, 380.
Poetry.—Selected.—The ascension of the Prophet Elijah, 92. Adjustment, 116; Abba Father, 132; The autumn of life, 141; And that is all, 293; The borderlands, 244; The call, 108; A child's mirror, 132; City of the jasper wall, 188; Creeping up the stairs, 237; Compassion, 285; The Delectable mountains, 237; Daisies, 268; Day dreams, 388; The christian's fatherland, 52; "Enoch," 188; Finish thy work, then rest, 44; Faded leaves, 148; For a sufferer, 212; Flower and weed, 276; God knows it all, 28; God over all, 84; Grace Darling, 116; God's care, 204; Given and taken, 221; God's inward teaching, 285; God knoweth, 293; Good temper, 293; He will come, 20; He leadeth me, 52; He careth for all, 356; It is well, 4; Ich dien, 325; I hold still, 365; Keys, 388; Lines, 20, 36; The little cloak, 221; Lines by W. C. Bryant, 340; Lines by James Montgomery on the abolition of slavery in the West Indies, 348; The lesson of the ripples, 356; Lesson from a clock, 365; The life-line, 372; The motherless, 12; My brave laddie, 36; Light in darkness, 388; Life and death, 396; The Master's reply, 148; The music of the gospel, 340; Mercies, 348; My refuge, 404; "Nobody cares," 60; Not shut in, 141; Nobility, 396; Our country, 100; The one talent, 293; "Oh! to be ready," 372; The old cabinet, 412; The power of a word, 260; Patient with the living, 268; "Put not your trust in princes," 309; Per pacem, ad lucem, 365; Rain after drought, 77; Reflections arising from well known events, 165; Red letter days, 356; The shady corners, 44; A seaside meditation, 124; Some other day, 156; "Shut in," 197; Sacred places, 316; Submission, 412; The still hour, 348; Shared, 372; At twilight, 12; The teacher's dream, 69; Telling fortunes, 172; Thy loving kindness, 197; Thoughts in a religious meeting, 244; True story of a fawn, 260; Too late, 276; Thankfulness, 285; The two worlds, 316; Trust, 325; "To die for the country," 380; Their cost, 404; Uses of adversity, 4; Unfinished, 84; A winter sunset, 165; Whats' the use of grumbling," 204; Watch your words, 228; Winter, 252.

Quail. Notice of the California, 219.
Quicksilver mines of New Almaden, Cal. Account of a recent visit to the, 11.

Railroad. On the mechanical difficulties connected with a, for ships, 22.
On the injury to irons of the, from continual vibrations, 222.
A, fined for discriminating against a colored person, 239.
Railroad-work on the First day of the week. Recomendations of the Massachusetts Railroad commissioners against, 199.
Rags. A method of disinfecting, 278.
Rambles on the hills of Bucks county, Pa., 4. 10. 18.
Redman Elizabeth. Anecdotes of Divine guidance experienced by, 147.
Reforms. All, lie in the principles taught by our Saviour, 381.
Refreshment-room at Arch street meeting-house. Report of Superintendent of, 309.
Religion a stronghold, 21.
A false and a true life and light in, 34.
exemplified by the fruit which it bears, 43.
by proxy, 45.
in Western New York. Remarks on the state of 62.
Remarks on falling from a good state in, 91.
Notice of the neglect of, in Germany, 95.
Remarks of James Backhouse on feelings accompanying, 102.
Incidents showing the instrumental means at times made use of to awaken souls to a sense of, 114.
The need of constant prayer, to maintain the life of, 116.
On the danger of relying on intellectual aid in, 122. 286.
On the test of, in every day life, 175.
Caution against a self seeking or ambitious spirit in, 180.
Correct sentiments concerning, may be held, without experiencing the heart-changing power of, 183.
A, without Divine power, formality, 211.
below the elbows. Remarks on a preponderance of external activities, entitled, 260.
On pure and undefiled, 291.
On putting stumbling-blocks in the way of, 309.
On the blessed effects of true sincerity in, 310.
The effects of, to be seen in our conduct, 313.
On a false zeal in, 323.
On the danger of taking up a false rest in, 362.
The blessed rewards of, not to be be attained without they are sought for, 367.
On a true and a counterfeit activity in, 411.
The true knowledge of God only to be obtained through the operation of Christ's spirit, 415.
Religious tenets. Essays entitled, 34.
Religious views and tenets. Essays entitled, 122. 180. 211.
Remarkable preservation and recovery of a young woman, 93.
Reproof. Incidents and reflections upon the administering of, 194.
Retirement. On the blessings of frequent spiritual, 108.
Revival spirit of the present day not that which draws to God, The, 180.
Righteous. Encouragement offered to the, 50.
Risks. Remarks on taking unjustifiable, 29.
River. Notice of the exploration of a subterranean, in Austria, 254.
Rivers. Notice of three great, 206.
Roman Catholics. Notice of the establishment of an order of nuns called "sisters of peace" by, 6.
Notice of an association of, to pray for souls in purgatory, 46.
Superstitious belief of, 70.
Statistics of the propaganda of, 126.
Wise advices of the late council of, in Baltimore, 166.
Notice of superstitious veneration shown by, 183. 407.
An apology for the Inquisition by, and comments, 223.
Roman Catholics. Notice of a bill introduced by, in the Legislature of New York, in reference to Sectarian teaching in reformatories, 239.
Priests of, bless the throats of persons, to prevent diphtheria, &c., 278.
The hold of, on Spanish-American governments loosening, 319.
Comments on the demands of, in New York, in reference to the public schools, 350.
Views of, as expressed in The Catholic World, on religious liberty, 367.
Rugby school. How boys live at, 148.
Rural Rambles. Essay entitled, 43.
Russia. Notice of religious fraternities in, 239.
Notice of religious intolerance in, 239.
The Stundists of, declared heretics by the Greek church, 270.
Remarks of a recent traveller, upon, 340.
Russian travellers in Mongolia and China. Observations of, 147. 154. 162.
monasteries. Notice of, 230.

Saltpetre bed. Discovery of a large, in Bolivia, 102.
Salem Osgood's advice to his daughters, 348. 355.
Salt. Notice of the production of, in Western New York, 46.
On, without savor, 101.
Salvation Army movements. Notice of, 30. 126. 270. 407.
A young man convicted at a meeting of the, makes confession of crime, 214.
Salvation. The way of, a fight of faith, 124.
Sanctification defined by Isaac Penington, 370.
Sand. On turning, into sandstone, 37.
Sandstone. On the formation of brown, 374.
Sanitarium Association of Philad'a. Notice of, 326.
Satterthwaite Susanna. Brief account of the convincement and character of, 132. 158.
Saw-mills on the Mississippi. Notice of, 294.
School. On the blessed effects attending a religious exercise for children in the Waltham Abbey, 7.
Notice of the establishment of the New Jersey Reform, 205.
Schools. Notice of the extension of the department of mechanical instruction in the Penna. State College, 54.
Notice of the establishment of, with religious instruction by the religious element in Holland, 55.
Remarks on the unsubstantial character of the learning of the, 86.
First day. Remarks on the effects of, observed among Friends, 60.
Honorary degrees conferred by, tend to vanity, 399.
On the need of classical text books for, free from paganism, 399.
Science. Remarks on facts and theories of, 93.
Scientific Notes, &c. 6. 13. 21. 37. 45. 54. 62. 69. 78. 86. 95. 102. 110. 118. 126. 134. 142. 150. 158. 166. 174. 182. 190. 198. 206. 214. 222. 229. 246. 254. 261. 270. 277. 294. 302. 310. 318. 326. 334. 342. 350. 366. 374. 381. 389. 398. 406. 413.
Sectarian teaching in public institutions in New York City. Opposition to, 319.
Sea. Observations on life at great depths in the, 69.
On the phosphorescence of the, 78.
Notice of land-birds and insects found at sea, 118.
Observations on the fauna, &c., of the, off Western Africa, 142.
Reflections on the calmness and silence of the depths of the sea, 170.
On the size of waves of the, 350.
On the separation of magnesia from the water of the, 350.
Self. On the necessity of watchfulness over, 300.
Self sacrifice. Illustration of, 342.
Self-righteousness. On, 245.
Comments on the above, 253.
Separatists of 1827. Notice of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of, 1885, 359.
Shillitoe Thomas. Recollections of, 364.
Shipton Anna. Anecdote of, 140.
Incident related by, and comments, 170.
Ships. Notice of the resemblance of ancient oriental, to sea animals, 373.
Shoe. Explanation of a popular custom of throwing a, 229.
Shoemaker John of Abington, Pa. Brief notice of the character of, 289.
Sick. On avoiding deception in dealing with the, 179.
Simple truths respecting the testimony of Friends to plainness of dress, 317.
Simple truths respecting the meetings for discipline of Friends, 340.

Simple truths respecting sleeping in meetings, 349.
Simple truths respecting tobacco, 373.
Sinful habits. On overcoming, 239.
Simpson John. Religious counsel conveyed by, in conversation, 363.
Sins of omission. Serious considerations respecting, 356.
Slave trade. Incident of the existing, in Tangiers, 28.
Notice of the "labor traffic" of Queensland, Australia, 415.
Slavery among the Bedawin, 61.
in the United States. Remarks on the evils of, and the testimony of Friends against, 122. 137.
Notes of the Penna. Society for the abolition of, &c., founded in 1775, 238.
legislation. A relic of, in Maryland, 262.
in the West Indies. Notice of the abolition of, 337.
Remarks on the abolition of, among Friends in America during last century, 382.
Smith Robert, the former editor of "The Friend." Letter of, and comments, 132.
Solomon. Notice of some legends of, 109.
Sons of God. Essay entitled, The, 83.
Soudan. Account of a ride in the, 61.
Spain. Remarks on the prevalence of profane swearing in, 95.
Free exercise of religious worship now permitted in, 151.
Speculators not to be trusted. Decision of Judge Agnew in reference to, 46.
Spring walk. Essay entitled, A, 266.
Spontaneous combustion of lampblack. Notice of, 366.
combustion caused by oxidation of an iron salt, 375.
St. Petersburg. Remarks on the dangerous nature of the site of, 149.
Star. Serious reflections upon observing the culmination of a, 86.
Notice of the movements of Arcturus, an approaching, 158.
Clusters. Observations on, 166.
On the distance of the nearest of the fixed, 182.
Stars visible in the 5th month, 1885, 331.
Stars and planets visible in the 10th month, 1884, 67.
St. Christopher's Island. Account of a recent visit to, 274. 282. 322.
"Strive to enter in." Essay entitled, 204.
Stevens Clarke. Biographical notice of, 348.
Stirridge Elizabeth. Account of the imprisonment and release of, 3. 10. 19,
Stone implements, &c. found in Brittany, 230.
Stranger's Friend Society in England. Account of the, 407.
Sugar making. near Demerara, Description of, 314.
Summary of Events. 7. 14. 23. 31. 39. 47. 55. 63. 71. 79. 88. 96. 104. 112. 119. 127. 135. 143. 151. 159. 167. 175. 184. 192. 199. 208. 216. 224. 231. 239. 247. 255. 263. 271. 279. 287. 295. 303. 311. 320. 328. 336. 343. 352. 358. 359. 368. 376. 384. 391. 400. 408. 416.
Sun. Notice of spots on the, 181.
Notice of the midnight, 342.
Superstition. Instance of, in England, 30.
Instance of, in America, 207.
Syenite. Notice of, 61.
Syria. Notice of the progress of education in, 30.
Syrian Forgiveness. Instance of, 101.

Taber Thomas. Biographical notes and anecdotes of, 259.
Taber Charles. Biographical notes and anecdotes of, 339.
"Take the other hand." Extract entitled, 156.
Talbot Sarah. Brief notice of, 378.
Tares in the East. Description of, 326.
Telescope. Remarks on the effects of the atmosphere in using the, 326.
Tertullian. Extracts from the writings of, 379.
Telegraph. On the protection of submarine cables for the, from the teredo, 54.
A rat helpful in running a wire for the, 206.
Telephone. Conversation conducted by, over a distance of 2468 miles, 150.
Telephone wires. An enemy to, 69.
Ten o'clock. Observations on the propriety of observing no later hour than, for retiring, 149.
Theatre. No Christian can attend the, 150.
On the danger of example to others by visiting the, 182.
A contaminating influence connected with the, 327.
Thessalonica. Notice of labors of missionaries at ancient, 6.
Thompson Thomas. Faithful service of, as a minister and triumphant death, 90.
Times of shaking, but a sure foundation. Essay entitled, 59.
Tobacco. General Grant's illness ascribed to, 277.
On the propriety of selling, 343.
The use of, by Friends believed to be detrimental to a growth in the truth, 373.
Experience of a merchant who declined the sale of, for conscience sake, 374.
Testimony against the use of, 375.
On the injurious effects of, upon the health, 380.
To-day. Remarks on the duty and the happiness of, 110.
To-morrow wiser than to-day. Extract entitled, 110.
Tract Repository. Statement of the cost, &c. of the, by David Heston, 158.
Trials. It is a mercy when the Lord whispers peace among multiplied, 124.
Trifles. On properly caring for, 108.
Trinidad. Notice of a recent visit to, 306.
Trip to Tunesassah. Essay entitled, A, 362. 369. 377. 385. 395.
Trip to Western New York, A, 74.
Trip to Canada. A, 389, 395.
Troas. Description of the ruins of, 212.
Truth. On the blessedness of living in the, 357.
Truth at all hazards. Incident entitled, The, 115.
Why seekers after, fail, 359.
Two heroes. Narrative of, 274.

Unbelief. On practical, in every day life, 186.
United brethren in Christ. Notice of proceedings of a recent conference of, 367.
United States. Statistics of the reduction of the national debt of the, 116.

Vaccination. Statistics of the value of, 158.
Varney Mary. Biographical notice of, 332.
Viking ship tombs. Account of the ancient, 182.
Virginia City, Nev. The site of, slowly moving, 389.
Visit to Caln Quarterly Meeting. Account of a, 26.
Visit to Indiana. Account of a late, 130. 138.
Visiting the sick. Remarks on proprieties to be observed in, 100.
Vulture. By what sense does the, discern its prey, 226.

Walk in the woods. Essay entitled. A, 283.
Walk in the spring. Essay entitled. A, 299. 324
Wanted practical workers. Jottings entitled, 204.
Warder Benjamin H. Encouraging dream of the late 132.
War. Newman Hall on the duty of the Christian to protest against, 18.
Armaments not to be depended on for supremacy in, 46.
Remarks on the consecration of regimental banners as utterly inconsistent with the spirit of Christ, 63.
Incident showing the effects of conscription for, 116.
Comments on the absence of efforts in the Established church against, 118. 278.
reverses all the rules of morality, 124.
Remarks on the responsibility of the press in fomenting, 126.
by professing Christians, a stumbling-block to the heathen, 134, 230.
Notice of the faithful testimony of Friends in N. Carolina against, in 1814, 137.
On, resulting from the seizure of lands belonging to uncivilized peoples by European nations, 214.
Notice of the formation of the Peace Society in England in 1816, and comments on the spread of principles against, 254.
Comments on the costs and evils of England's present, 255.
An exposition of the views of Friends in regard to, by Joseph Hoag, 258.
An appeal for the circulation of Dymond's Essays as a means of convincing persons of the inconsistency of, with Christianity, 270.
The influence of the church of England not now exerted against, 278. 351.
On the use of torpedo boats in, 294.
On the happy prospect of an avoidance of, between England and Russia, 319.
Remarks of James Anthony Froude on the foolishness of a war between England and Russia, 343.
The church of England arraigned for its silence during the late excitement respecting, 351.
Effectual opposition to, must come from the conscience of individual soldiers, 367.
War. The views of the early Christians in reference to, 380.
The glorification of, likely to make rowdies of boys, 383.
Warnings to be heeded in judging of character, 101.
Solemn, 242.
Water. Notice of the effects of impure, in dyeing cloths, 46.
Injurious effects of impure drinking, upon health, 110.
Observations on the crystallizing of, 220.
Zinc vessels unsuitable for holding or conveying drinking, 374.
Water-baptism. On the inefficacy of, 250.
Way." What Orientals mean by "The, 51.
Wayside notes and reflections. Essay entitled, 355.
Weather. Notice of the suffering caused by the late extreme cold, in the N. W. States, 199.
Wenham gas light. Account of the, 294.
West Indies. Notice of the labors of Thos. Chalkley in the, 197.
Westtown Boarding School. Notice of money subscribed for a new building at, &c., 78. 191.
Notice of a proposed handicraft instruction to boys at, 179.
Notice of a revised plan of a new building at, 191.
Notice of building operations at, 351.
Remarks of a former scholar on revisiting, after an absence of nearly half a century, 365.
Westtown ramble. Essay entitled a, 403, 413.
What a few kind words did. Extract entitled, 196.
Wheeler Daniel. Account of a meeting for worship held by, in the Sandwich Islands, 5.
Testimony to the character and parental care of, 301.
Wheat. Remarkable increase of, 310.
White Cross Army. Notice of the, in England, and comments, 254.
White races not prosperous where snow does not fall, 319.
Whittier John G. Notice of a less acceptable biography of, 20.
"Who is driving"? Remarks on Providential guidance in the affairs of men, entitled, 165.
Wilson Thomas. Epistle of, to Friends, on the administration of the discipline, 92.
Experience of, on the preciousness of silent meetings, 135.
Wickliffe John. Brief account of the life and religious labors of, 94.
Wife. Extract entitled. A true, 324.
Will-o-the-Wisps. Observations on, in Fulton county, Penn., 163.
Winter walk." Essays entitled. "A, 194. 220. 234. 242.
Wisdom. On heavenly, 333.
Witchell Mary (afterwards Wright). Brief notice of, and her great age, 379.
Withy George. Anecdote of Divine guidance experienced by, 146.
Testimony of, delivered in Lynn, Mass., in 1822. 265.
Woods. Notice of, heavier than water found in the United States, 390.
Woolman John. Poetical tribute to the memory of, 165.
Expressions of, on the trust committed to Friends, in the maintenance of their principles, 205.
Advice of, to those who are active in the church, 269.
Women. On the growing influence of, in American politics, 22.
Word of Divine grace. On the daily need of continuing in the, 211.
Word for increased faithfulness. Essay entitled. A, 86.
Word of God. Essay entitled, The, 386.
Words deceive the conscience. Extract entitled, 94.
Worldliness. On the deadening effects of, on the life of religion, 26.
Workers. On the want of practical, 204.
Work of grace. A, 125.
Worship. Remarks on a vicarious, 75.
On the doctrine of the Society of Friends in regard to, 135.
Drowsiness in meetings for, reproved, 154.
To perform Divine, acceptably, a strict watch to be maintained, 242.
On avoiding useless conversation on the close of meetings for, 259.
Comments on the above, 269.
Extract in reference to the above, 276.
Costly houses for, stumbling to the poor, 303.
On the unseemly practice of sleeping in meetings for, 349.

Yearly Meeting, Canada. Notice of the visit and action of the London deputation to visit, 22. 46.
1884. Notice of the proceedings of, 38.
1885. Notice of the proceedings of, 396.
Dublin 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 359.
Kansas (smaller body) 1884. Notice of proceedings of, 119.
Notice of efforts of, to establish a school fund, 206.
(larger body) 1884. Comments on some of the proceedings of, 119.
London. Remarks on the course of, as sanctioning unsound principles, 30. 415.
Notice of recent remarks in the Meeting for Sufferings of, 207.
1688. Testimony to the blessed presence of the Lord in, 295.
Yearly Meeting, London, 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 339. 375. 415.
1743. Extracts from comments on an Epistle of, 367.
New England (larger body) 1885. Notice of printed minutes of, and comments, 407.
New York, held at Glen Falls, 1884. Notice of proceedings of, 14.
New York, held at Glen Falls, 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 383.
North Carolina 1884. Notice of the proceedings of, 47.
Ohio 1884. Notice of the proceedings of, 79.
Remarks on the proceedings of, 118.
Philadelphia 1823. Notice of proceedings of, by M. Collins, 281.
1885. Notice of proceedings of, 303. 311.
Yearly Meeting, Western (smaller body) 1884. Notice of the proceedings of, 71.
Memorial of, for the abolition of capital punishment, 191.
On the ground of the establishment of, and other similar bodies in the West, 199.
Youth. The sacredness of the property of others to be early impressed upon, 321.
Yucatan. Account of a recent visit to, 189. 196. 202.

Zeal without knowledge and knowledge without zeal, contrasted, 102.
Zuni Indians. Notice of a collection of curiosities, &c., relating to the, 214.

XUM

XUM